Students in the performance are not allowed in the auditorium without a ticket and are asked to remain backstage during the performance. If a parent has purchased a ticket for a student(s) and wish to pick them up after they have completed their dance, they may do so during specified pick-up times at the rehearsal room located on the second floor above the backstage entrance. Any parent whose child is in the Rising Star or Junior show picking up their child early must have a pick-up slip. Student pick-up slips are available ONLY until Sunday, June 17th at the front desk of the studio. You will hand this slip to the volunteer when you pick up your child during the designated pick-up times. Be assured that all students are well supervised by our staff and volunteers while backstage. If you are able to volunteer at either of these performances please advise the front desk.*

Please read all handouts sent home and check the information board and website (year-end show link) often for any updates and changes regarding the year end performances.

Attendance for all rehearsals is a must in order to fully learn the choreography

Please make sure we have your current email address if you wish to be part of our email communications.
